ATTENDANCE Not a solution to any of the issues. It is a solution to differently a cause of problem which is the case of Bouches-du-Rhône. Confront it for the issues which are not under your control. If the status of the issues is not under your control, you cannot do anything about it. You can do something about the issues which are under your control. If the status of the issues is under your control, you can do something about it.

It is my understanding that there is a misunderstanding.

Nonetheless, I am grateful for the opportunity to explain.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any further questions.
