Know your rights. Insist on genuine Volkswagen parts.

In the event of a collision, your insurance company can help with the claims process, and they often recommend their preferred repair facilities. But where you go is up to you. Know your rights and insist on genuine Volkswagen parts at a Volkswagen Certified Collision Repair Facility. Only Volkswagen factory-trained specialists can repair your Volkswagen to factory standards using genuine Volkswagen parts that help protect the corrosion perforation coverage of your Volkswagen vehicle.* Get peace of mind knowing all work, including parts, meet Volkswagen's factory standards.

* Please review your warranty booklet for exclusions and other conditions.

Did you know?

- Volkswagen vehicles are backed by one of the longest corrosion warranties in the industry.
- Genuine Volkswagen parts come with a Two Year / Unlimited km Limited Warranty covering parts and labour when installed by your Volkswagen dealer.
- Only a Volkswagen dealer or Volkswagen Certified Collision Repair Facility can source new genuine Volkswagen parts, installed by factory-trained specialists with Volkswagen technical support.
- From engine parts to body paint, fluids to wipers, maintenance to repairs, Volkswagen Certified Collision Centres have everything you need to keep your Volkswagen properly tuned and looking its best.
- Any minor accident repair should not void the limited new vehicle warranty and/or the collision warranty if done properly. * Only your Volkswagen dealer can ensure proper repair to factory standards using genuine Volkswagen parts.
- It's important to know your rights when dealing with your insurance company. You're allowed to take your vehicle to the repair facility of your choice. And Volkswagen makes that choice easy with a Volkswagen Certified Collision Repair Facility.
